

PTA News

STANDARDS

"Today's Education Standards" will be theme of Tuesday's meeting of Towers' Elementary PTA.

Mrs. William McKim, T.E.A.C. chairman, is in charge of the program for the evening.

Speaker will be Mr. Paul Hawkins, assistant principal of pupil personnel, West High School.

Mrs. Franklin Bryant, ways and means vice president, announced at the April executive board meeting that a paper drive will be held May Third from 7 a.m. to noon in the school parking lot. Car pickup of papers can be arranged by calling Mrs. Bryant at FR 1-5867 prior to this date.

Installation of officers will be held at the May association meeting.

Officers elected are: Mmes. George V. McLean, president; William Pace second vice president; Franklin D. Bryant, third vice president; Raymond Lewand, recording secretary; Gradon Stuart, corresponding secretary; Marcus Martin, treasurer; Douglas H. Swan, historian; and Martha Jensen, Auditor.

Room mothers for Mrs. Crain, Mrs. Jensen, and Mrs. Mueller will be hostesses for the evening at the April meeting.

POT LUCK LUNCHEON

Fleming Junior High PTA will serve a salad potluck luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 30 at the home of Mrs. Llyad Hampton, 1679 W. 257th St., Harbor City. Donation will be 75 cents. Persons desiring additional information are asked to contact Mrs. Hampton at DA 6-8173 or Mrs. Don Graham at DA 6-5284.

NAME OFFICERS

Mrs. William Cassida will serve as president of North High PTA for the 1963-1964 term.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Cassida are: Mrs. Loris Sim, first vice president; E. H. McCusker, second vice president; and Mmes. Maury Bruner, third vice president;

Robert Hobbs, recording secretary; Robert Dean, corresponding secretary; James Carlson, treasurer; Jack Till, auditor; and A. J. Stilwell, historian.

SET LUNCHEON

Mrs. Anna Grancell, will be paid special tribute Wednesday afternoon, May 1, when the Anna Grancell Heart and Cancer Chapter holds a Mother's Day luncheon at the Pen and Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach in honor of her 81st birthday.

Mrs. Harry Kaplan, president of the auxiliary which supports the free and part-pay patient care programs of Sedars Lebanon - Mount Sinai Hospitals, has named Mrs. Charles Davis event chairman.

Mayor Addresses Democrats

Mayor Isen discussed the status of the South Bay State College site at a meeting of the Women's Democratic Society of South Bay held Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Doris Robinson, 16703 Ermanita Ave., Torrance. Mrs. Alice Chase presided.

A report of the recent California Democratic Council Convention was given by Mrs. Rene Dean of Torrance, delegate.

Also reporting were Mrs. Mildred Stuart of San Pedro, who attended the Women's Key Conference on Legislation held April 6, at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

The legislative conference, annual event by the Women's Division of the Democratic State Central Committee, included a panel discussion on Education moderated by Mrs. Rae Wymen of San Pedro, co-chairman of the 28th Congressional District Democratic State Central Committee.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

☆ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

PREPARING GARMENTS for Spool and Fashion Show to be presented by Torrance Junior Womens Club at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 24, at the Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia, are (left to right): Carole Browne, Mrs. Richard Browne, Sharyn Browne, Kathleen Murphy, and Mrs. Thomas Murphy. Outfits modeled by members and their children will be made by members. Hats will be provided by the Paris Hat Shop. Chairman is Mrs. William Faulds.

As the 1963 officers were marshalled into the room, Albert Simpson, accompanied by Lona Lee Biller, sang, "My Friend." The officers took their places in the West forming and "A."

Amaranth Court Installs Officers

Lomita Court Order of the Amaranth installed officers in ceremonies conducted at the Torrance Masonic Temple Thursday evening.

Temple decorations included a bouquet of Easter Lilies in front of the pedestal and a silver heart decorated with a spray of orchids on the piano.

In the west was the emblem of the Associate Matron, two large bells; in the south, the lighted candle within the Amaranth wreath the Conductress emblem; and in the north, the Cord of harmony, the emblem of the associate conductress.

Theme of the installation was Friendship. Officers were given pins with the emblem of their office with clasped hands for friendship. Motto for the year 1963, was "Let us Walk in the Light." Watchwords were "Truth and Fellowship."

Preceding the ceremony, Garnett Satterfield played a musical prelude.

Betty Kendall, installing marshal, and Clyde Satterfield, installing aide, escorted the Master of Ceremonies, Perry Lingren and Installing Secretary, Vivian Cook to the throne. Isabel and Joseph Galera, roval matron and foyal patron introduced Perry Lingren, master of ceremonies. The Bible Bearer, Ann Long, wreath bearer, Hallie Parbois and installing prelate, Ada Anderson were escorted to their places.

Hostesses were Marie Ware, Margie Russell, Grace Rother, Gertrude Kastrup and Hosts, George Ware and Jess Kastrup.

As the 1963 officers were marshalled into the room, Albert Simpson, accompanied by Lona Lee Biller, sang, "My Friend." The officers took their places in the West forming and "A."

The Flag of the United States of America was posted in the East by Flag Bearer, Luane Mittan, son of the 1963 Royal Matron and Royal Patron and all pledged allegiance.

Isabell Galera, Royal Matron presided during escort. Guests escorted were: Nettie Patterson, Grand Conductress, John Woodman, Grand Chief Commissioner of Appeals, Virginia Deebler, Grand Faith, Secl Jones, Grand Representative of Iowa; Marguarite Morgan, Maybell Prechard, Marguerite Jones, Dorothy Barnes, District Deputy Grand Royal Matrons; Edward Morgan, Billie McClintock, Assistant Grand Lectures, the 1962 Royal Matrons and Royal Patrons and the Past Royal Matrons and Past Royal Patrons.

Uncrowning ceremony was presided over by Joseph Galera with Mattie Meyer, Uncrowning Matron, Margie Russell, Marshall in the East, Margaret Radcliffe, Marshal in the West, Marguerite Morgan, Crown Bearer and Audrey Bacon, Standard Bearer. At the close of the uncrowning a musical selection was dedicated to Isabel and Joseph Galera.

Joseph Galera presented the jewel to his wife who reciprocated, preceding installation Prayer was given by Ada Anderson. Roll call of officers was called by the Installing Secretary, Vivian Cook and the obligation taken by the officers at the altar. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mittan were presented at the altar and installed.

Albert Simpson dedicated the song "My Task" to the Mittans.

Officers installed were: Rosalie Bayes, associate matron; John Kendall, associate patron; Marguerite Morgan, treasurer; Lois Babcock, secretary; Barbara Stevens, conductress; Nancy Marren, associate conductress; Ann Long, trustee for three years; Emma Ratzlaff, marshal in the east; Mabel Moore, marshal in the west; Margaret Raymond, standard bearer; Donald Stevens, prelate; Garnett Satterfield, musician; Mona Brizendine, truth; Evelyn Tate, faith; Kathleen Calder, wisdom; Crystal Walker, charity; Eugene Meyer, historian; Albert Bayes, warder and Fred Bacon, sentinel.

Other officers will be Gladys Mothersell, electrician; Clyde Satterfield, prompter; Margaret Radcliffe, Bible bearer and Rose Kroesen, wreath bearer.

Grand officers will be: Marguerite Jones, district deputy grand royal matron and Billie McClintock, assistant grand lecturer.

Proclamation was given from the west and east by Betty Kendall, installing marshal.

Coronation ceremony was conducted by Marguerite Morgan, crowning matron; Frederick Cook, honored marshal; Mattie Meyer, marshal in the east; Margaret Radcliffe, marshal in the west; Mabel Moore, standard bearer; Gladys Mothersell, crown bearer; and Edward Morgan, sword bearer. Honor Guards were the 1961 Royal Patrons and the Captain of the Guards, Vern Ring.

Following presentation of 1963 royal matrons and patrons, Albert Simpson sang "The Prayer Perfect." A reception followed.

Gladys Mothersell was chairman of installation. Mattie Meyer and Vivian Cook were chairman of the reception.

CARD PARTY

Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will sponsor a public card party Tuesday evening, in the Woman's Club House, 1422 Engracia Avenue. Games will start at 8:15 p.m. Bridge, canasta, five hundred, pinocle and bunco will be played.

Prizes will be awarded high scores and a door prize will be drawn. The public is invited.

Sloan-Donohue Vows Exchanged

Miss Saralee Sloan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sloan of 5020 Sharynne Lane, became the bride of Gary S. Donohue, son of Mrs. Paul Sheppard of Baltimore, Md., in a ceremony performed at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 7 at Temple Menorah, Redondo Beach.

The couple exchanged vows before an altar decorated with baskets of white chysanthemums, white gladioli and pink snapdragons. Pews were decorated with pink and white ribbons.

Three hundred guests witnessed the ceremony conducted by Rabbi Henry Front.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white lace ballerina gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and full skirt. Her abbreviated taffeta veil was attached to a ring of pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and lilies.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Sheldon Wells, cousin of the bride, who was dressed in a turquoise brocade print dress with a full skirt. She carried a bouquet of carnations.

The bride's mother selected an avocado green sheath with matching shoes and white accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Poster Donohue was best man. Ushers were: Joel Bloom, Gary Bloom and Harry Sloan.

Organ selections include "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "Oh Promise Me." Mrs. Nettie Vass of Detroit, Mich. was organist.

A reception in the temple lounge followed the ceremony. Mrs. Glen Dahlvang presided at the guest book and Mrs. Cecil Tatum cut the wedding cake. Assisting at the reception were: Mmes. Ben Wallace, George Lewison, Ben Kaufman, Meyer Alpert, Allan Shupps, and Arnold Cowan.

A graduate of Torrance High School, class of '57, and El Camino College, the bride has been employed by the Bank of America of San Francisco.

The bridegroom, who is a graduate of San Francisco High School and Heal College, is affiliated with the Greyhound Bus Line.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride selected a pink silk print two-piece dress with white accessories. Following a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas, Santa Barbara, Monterey and Carmel, the couple is at home at 787 Brunswick St., San Francisco.

Out of town wedding guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Rittenberg of Van Nuys; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bloom of North Hollywood; Mrs. Yeta Bloom of Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. Eric Deutch of Bell; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolfe of Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Max Evans of North Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. David Schloss of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. George Cohen of San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. James Berman of Los Angeles; Foster Donahue of San Francisco Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Welles of Berkeley and Carl Lockshin of Youngstown, Ohio.

Garden Club To Install Officers

New officers of the South Bay Garden Club will be inducted at an installation luncheon at noon Monday in the Redondo Beach Women's Clubhouse.

Officers to be invested are Mmes. Harry J. Ebinger, president; E. J. Martin, vice-president; Ceasar Arcq, recording secretary; Leon Kennedy, treasurer; Linn McClure, corresponding secretary; Raoul Collette, parliamentarian, and C. P. Corliss, director at large.

Installing officer will be Mrs. W. W. Wilkinson.

YOUNGEST QUEEN CANDIDATES in Torrance are those competing for title of Miss Southwood Little League. Crowning of an 8-12-year-old first lady of the ballpark will take place at opening day ceremonies Saturday, April 27, at the new Southwood Little League field at 4701 Halison St. Candidates are required to appear in a shift dress and must reside within the league's boundaries. Would-be queens desiring to register are asked to phone Mrs. Steve Haston at FR 1-7241 before Wednesday. Pictured are (left to right) Carol Green, 9, and Judy Thurston, 10.

Candidates are required to appear in a shift dress and must reside within the league's boundaries. Would-be queens desiring to register are asked to phone Mrs. Steve Haston at FR 1-7241 before Wednesday. Pictured are (left to right) Carol Green, 9, and Judy Thurston, 10.

FOCUS ON CHILDREN'S BOOKS will be the topic of a talk to be delivered by Mrs. Lynn Shidler, curriculum consultant for the Torrance Unified School District, at a meeting of Sepuveda School PTA to be held in the school cafeteria at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday. Preceding the meeting parents will visit classrooms in observance of National Education week.

MRS. GARY S. DONOHUE
... former Saralee Sloan